West Nile Virus activity increases in Sacramento County

Special to Arden-Carmichael News

The Sacramento-Yolo Mosquito & Vector Control District announced on June 4 that further evidence of West Nile virus activity has been detected throughout Sacramento County as 32 new mosquito samples and four birds have tested positive for the disease.

The birds and mosquito samples have been collected from different areas in Sacramento County but especially focused in communities near Gerber and Calvine

"We're very concerned about the level of intense activity we're seeing this season," said David Brown, district manager. "While it's not uncommon to find widespread areas with dead birds and mosquito samples in August, finding virus activity in June is certainly earlier than anything we've seen in recent years and we urge residents to take these early indications seriously."

West Nile virus activity was also detected last week in the city of Davis in Yolo County as dead birds and mosquito samples also tested positive.

The increased activity comes as the region recently received a late rain storm which created even more aquatic sites capable of producing mosquitoes.

"The excess water will increase mosquito habitats. Now more than ever we need everyone to do their part and drain mosquito breeding sources in their back yard," said Brown. "As the warming trend continues for the remainder of the week, the virus will likely amplify and the risk of human transmission will increase."

In response to the recent findings, the District has started ground fogging around areas where positive mosquitoes and birds have been found.

Back in the day, Mom was a virtual powerhouse of activity - Dad called her a force to be reckoned with. Of course as kids, we didn't think it was any big deal for her to have a full time job, cook and clean for the family, get five kids ready for school every day – makes me tired just saying it.

Now the equation is flipped and I am the adult child taking care of her and all of my other responsibilities.

If you are caring for a parent, full or part time, you deserve a break too. It's important for caregivers to recharge and reconnect with your spouse and kids slow down, breathe.

Sam's Hof Brau continues longtime traditions at Watt, El Camino avenues

By LANCE ARMSTRONG lance@valcomnews.com

Editor's Note: This is part two of a two-part history series about Sam's Hof Brau and other restaurants that were founded in Sacramento by the late Sam Gordon.

As presented in the first part of this series, local restaurateur Sam Gordon (1907-1998) established four restaurants in the Sacramento area from 1955 to 1960. And with the popularity of these eateries, he continued to open other local restaurants.

His next dining establishment, Sam's Plaza Hof Brau at 2500 Watt Ave. at El Camino Avenue, opened in January 1962.

decorations at the restaurant is a large painting of the 1869 "golden spike" celebration, which ceremoniously marked the completion of the first Transcontinental Railroad.

But beyond its unique, inviting décor, Sam's built its positive reputation through its entrées featuring fresh meats such as roast beef, roast turkey, prime rib, corned beef, baked ham and pastrami.

And of course, these meats can always be used to make this eatery's signature "Sam'wiches."

Special hof brau memories

Tom Tolley, who grew up in Carmichael and was a 1968 graduate of Del Campo High School, was one of this restaurant's earliest diners.

"Sam's Hof Brau was always a favorite," Tom said. "In 1962, my folks (Walter and Norma Tolley) and I first visited Sacramento and ate at Sam's on Watt and El Camino (avenues). I found it hard to believe that such a cool restaurant was right next door to such a fabulous bookstore and record store – the two Towers. Even Los Angeles and the San Fernando Valley, where I lived, couldn't match that sort of arrangement. We moved to Sacramento two years later and my dad and I would eat there. When Sam's celebrated their 25th anniversary, they rolled prices back to match their opening menu for about a week – a roast beef sandwich for around 65 cents – and the lines were out the door. Even though I was working at a quality restaurant – Coral Reef – I ate there almost every day during that week. Sam's is still a destination where I have lunch with friends or when I happen to be out that way. The one thing I miss is being able to buy a new book or album before or after lunch. The changes to Sam's have not been drastic over the years and I can still load up on free pickles."

David Spieth, 60, who graduated from El Camino High School in 1970, also shared his memories about the Watt and El Camino avenues res-

Spieth said. "And, of course, if you wanted a taste of turkey, they always had one turning in the window. It was always dark and cozy and had a lot of privacy when you ate. It was a place where you could take your girlfriend or friends and family. And it was close to the Country Ćlub (Lanes) bowling alley, where I used to bowl. (It was) next to Tower Records, where you could always get your vinyl or tapes. (The area has) changed a lot. The bowling alley and Sam's Hof Brau are the only original places left."

who owned the Watt Avenue hof brau for about 16 years, said that he began leasing the Watt Avenue building from Gordon in 1991.

Lennarz added that since the Denny's restaurant corporation owned Sam's eateries at that time, he simply shortened his business's name to Plaza Hof Brau to avoid any conflict with Denny's.

In 2007, the restaurant was purchased from Lennarz by the Hof Brau Restaurant Group, which included several Mikuni restaurants partners. And since 2009, this hof brau has op-

Preserve Sutter Jensen looks to raise $50,000 by end of year for park

By CORRIE PELC Arden-Carmichael News writer corrie@valcomnews.com

A group of concerned Carmichael citizens is hoping to raise $50,000 by the end of the year to help the Carmichael Recreation & Parks District (CRPD) develop and create Sutter-Jensen Commu-

"We're trying to build community here – that's kind of the thrust of what this is all about, to have parks so that we can have little community gatherings there and keep it really nice and keep the neighborhoods nicer," said Sandy Helland, co-chair of the Preserve Sutter Jensen Committee.

Making a plan

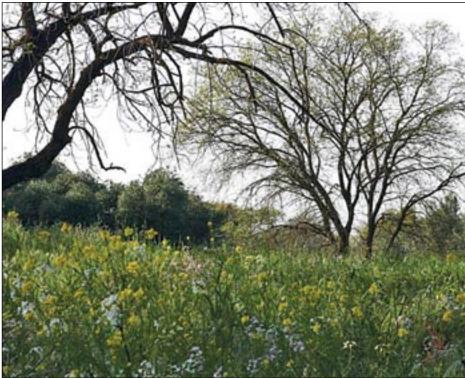

Helland said Preserve Sutter Jensen Phase 1 began about four years ago when the CRPD began looking to develop the Sutter Avenue park site.

According to Jack Harrison, district administrator for CRPD, a master plan was developed for Sutter Park, but there was no way to fund the development of the park. Because of that, the District developed two options – one that called for selling some of the land, and one that did not.

"Because the neighbors decided they could generate volunteer services or cash, the Board voted to give them a timeframe to try and raise the money, and if they were able to raise the money then we would not move forward with the selling of the land," he explained. "So our position was we preferred not to sell any of it, and they preferred we didn't sell any of it, so we agreed to work together and try to build the park without selling any "One of the reasons we want the trail to go through there is so that the people from this neighborhood, all the people from Sutter Avenue and all on this side of Fair Oaks Boulevard at least, could go over to the Jensen Garden safely," Helland explained. "And also it's really dangerous walking on the streets around here because there's no sidewalks."

Additionally, Harrison said Phase 1 also includes an improved entrance to the Community Garden and an improved parking lot on the Sutter side of the property.

"We need to improve the entrance so it's more safe for people to go in there and park at the Garden," Helland added. "And there is a parking lot, there's ground we use for parking, but it's not paved or anything."

Life transitions, the art of living simply and the importance of 'The Present Moment'

There are stages in all of our lives: a time to ance of her tuition. be born, a time to die. Between those two points in time, there is the "stuff" life is made of: childhood, the school, high school and college years, home eventually. And we don't want her to lose her family life, friends, growing older. The list goes home.

Restore the Roar:

C.K. McClatchy High School 'Athletic Hall of Fame' to induct first group of alumni

Special to Arden-Carmichael News

In recognition of McClatchy High School's 75 years in serving Sacramento's vouth, Restore the Roar is pleased to announce the establishment of the C. K. McClatchy High School Athletic Hall of Fame.

The 2012 class of inductees includes the outstanding Lion athletes of the and teams who compiled an outstandfirst 25 years of the school (1937-1962). A 75 Year celebration dinner honoring these inductees will be held Sept. 20 at the Elks Lodge No. 6 on Riverside Boulevard.

There are 48 athletes and two coaches included in this distinguished class.

The inductees include four of the top 100 Sacramento area high school football players identified by the Sacramento Bee in 2000, a Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) member and a Professional Golf Association (PGA) member, and a participant in the 1960 and 1964 Winter Olympics.

The two coaches selected are the legendary Jack Mauger (track) and George Bican (football)

Restore the Roar will also recognize the following athletic teams as part tee until we recognize these outstandof the CKM Hall of fame ceremony: the undefeated1944 and 1947 Lion football teams; the 1951-1952 baseball teams that carried a 40 game winstreak including an undefeated 1951 season: the 1958 baseball team that won the conference championship 1959-60 Cross Country teams that won back-to-back Sac-Joaquin Section Titles.

The CKM Hall of Fame will include not only those athletes, coaches ing athletic record while at Mc-Clatchy, but also those athletes who established an outstanding athletic record in sports for which there was no opportunity to compete while at Mc-Clatchy. A committee sought nominations from alumni and the public, researched school and local newspaper files and interviewed many alumni and observers to compile the class.

The committee included alumni and former faculty members Jim Coombs ('57) and Mike Nishio ('63), Rod Hollander and Jan Olmsted, and alumni Bob Sertich ('67), Mike Ricci ('69) and Rod Kunisaki ('75).

Bob Sertich, who initiated the effort, said, "It will be exactly one year from the first meeting of the commiting athletes in September. The committee put in many hours and many votes to identify the best athletes from the first 25 years of the school."

During its research and discussions, the committee found many family names popped up often in the early and posted an 18-1 record; and the years of the school including: Geremia, Stathos, Rose and Thomas. Also, it was more often than not that an athlete was a multi-sport athlete, something that is not so common today.

UC Berkeley was a big benefactor among these athletes with the following playing for Cal's Football team: John Pappa, Herb Jackson, Doug Graham, Steve Radich and Tom Relles. The committee believes that the most extraordinary accomplishment in the first 25 years was the win streak by the 1951 and 1952 baseball teams of 40 games. The 1951 team went undefeated with a 22-0 record and the 1952 team continued to win 18 more in a row for a streak or 40 wins. It is hard to believe that any high school team in Sacramento, or anywhere can match that streak.

According to Jim Coombs, "The committee work was a labor of love and awe. Many of the inductees are the same athletes whom I idolized as a child growing up in Land Park. I watched these athletes compete at McClatchy, Land Park and Hughes Stadium.'

Coombs has an eye for talent, as he spent 40 years as a high school and collegiate basketball official in addition to his duties as McClatchy faculty member and coach.

Former McClatchy Athletic Director Mike Nishio said, "These athletes set the foundation for a strong and enduring athletic program at McClatchy. The current Lion athletes continue to uphold the tradition by remaining on top of the Metro League in many sports every year."

Sertich adds one final comment, We are saddened that we did not get this put together before we lost some of these legends such as Fred Wristen, Tony and Frank Geremia, Herb Jackson and several others. At least now they become a formal part of the Mc-Clatchy athletic tradition."

Restore the Roar is still attempting to locate some of the inductees and members of the outstanding teams being recognized. If you are on the inductee list or were a member of one of the recognized teams and have not been contacted, please call Bob Sertich at (916) 441-0657 or Jim Coombs at (916) 422-9082.

The inductees and teams will also be recognized at the McClatchy Football Game at Hughes Stadium on Sept. 21. Restore the Roar is seeking sponsors for the event. The public is welcome. For reservations for any of these events, visit www.restoretheroar. org, e-mail golions@restoretheroar.org, or call Jim Coombs or Bob Sertich.

Remembering America's heroes on Memorial Day

By BILL CONDRAY Arden-Carmichael News writer & photographer

Freedom is not free. Many Americans have given their lives to defend this essential right in all parts of the world.

Memorial Day 2012 began early in the morning at many cemeteries, with the placing of crosses and flags on veterans' graves in remembrance of these men and women and their service to their country.

Before placing the crosses and flags on the graves, a Remembrance Ceremony was held by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, which closed with a prayer for those who have served their country. This tradition is to remind participants to honor and carry the tradition forward.

Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Scout Leaders from Carmichael and the surrounding area, Sea Cadets, Army ROTC and volunteers helped at East Lawn and Calvary Catholic cemeteries by placing the Crosses and Flags on the veteran's graves.
