Principal Erik Swanson leaving Sutter Middle School

By SALLY KING
East Sacramento News writer
sally@valcomnews.com

Erik Swanson, principal at Sutter Middle School, will be the new chief of talent and professional development officer for the Catholic schools of the Diocese of Sacramento. He will leave his position at Sutter Middle School on Sept. 19.

According to a press release issued by Rick Maya, director of Catholic Schools at the Diocese, Swanson will be responsible for attracting and retaining top principals. Swanson will be involved in creating new procedures for the evaluation, development and support of diocesan administrators and teachers. Maya explained that Swanson's duties include serving as a personnel manager as well, to provide greater resources for the Catholic schools.

Swanson said this is a really tough opportunity.

"I am so happy with the staff and community at Sutter," Swanson said. "They are second to none and I will miss them dearly."

He said the opportunity to work as the new chief overseeing 46 schools makes the best use of his skill sets.

"At this stage of my career, I could not pass it up," Swanson said.

Gabe Ross, chief communications officer for the Sacramento Unified School District said Swanson is going to be missed.

Vice Principal Cristin Tahara-Martin will be the interim principal," Ross said. "There is no doubt the school will run smoothly until the new principal is hired."

Ross said they are working on finding Swanson's replacement. A meeting has been set up on Tuesday, Sept. 13 at 6 p.m. to discuss with parents and staff what characteristics they want in the new principal.

Make a boat at the McKinley Library

Special to East Sacramento News

Tom Sawyer – and more notably, his friend Huckleberry Finn – adventured on a raft in Mark Twain’s famous novel. The McKinley Public Library will give families an opportunity to construct their own small “boat” to float in the McKinley Park duck pond on Saturday, Sept. 17 from 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Of course, families may choose to float their boats at home, as they imagine the adventures to be had. A variety of supplies will be on-hand so each child can create a boat that is one-of-a-kind.

The McKinley Public Library is located at 601 Alhambra Boulevard in East Sacramento. For more information, call (916) 264-2700 or visit www.saclibrary.com.

Correction:

The story about Jesuit High School that ran in the Sept. 1 issue of East Sacramento News on page two, mis-identified (in several places) Fr. David Suwalsky, S.J., as the principal of Jesuit High School. That is not correct.

Fr. Suwalsky is the newly-installed president of Jesuit High, and the article correctly details his background and settling-in to the local community.

Brianna Latko is the school’s principal.

West Nile Virus activity expands into new areas

Special to East Sacramento News

While the fall season is only a couple of weeks away, the hot temperatures of recent weeks have brought many mosquitoes and West Nile Virus activity has amplified and continues to be a threat. The Sacramento-Yolo Mosquito & Vector Control District announced that nine new mosquito samples and four new birds have tested positive for the virus.

"West Nile virus activity is expanding into areas that we hadn't seen so far this season," said David Brown, district manager. "Personal protection with an effective insect repellent is more important than ever. It only takes one bite from an infected mosquito for you to become seriously ill."

The majority of WNV positive mosquitoes have been found in the Wilton and Elk Grove areas, however new activity has now been detected near Capitol Park and Crocker Park in downtown Sacramento, as well as Tahoe Park. This season, weather patterns have been very different than in previous years and WNV activity has been ongoing and steady

"As long as we have hot temperatures, we will continue to see mosquitoes. Infection rates are still high and we urge everyone to not let their guard down," said Brown.

As a response to the recent findings and heightened activity, district staff will inspect the area for mosquito breeding sources, continue with extensive trapping and surveillance as well as evaluate the appropriate treatment options to ensure public health and reduce mosquito populations.

Up to now, there are no local human WNV cases, however, throughout the state, activity has been registered in 26 counties and there are 33 human cases reported – mainly in Central and Southern California.

Sacramento Archives Crawl to be held Oct. 1

Special to East Sacramento News

Sacramento's first annual "Explore History: Sacramento Archives Crawl" will be held on Oct. 1 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Twenty-two archives and special collections libraries from the Sacramento area and beyond will be celebrating National Archives Month by exhibiting rarely-seen historic treasures from their collections at four host locations in the downtown area.

Participants in the Crawl can start off at any of the host locations and "crawl" to the others using the map provided in the Archives Crawl passport – which will be available at the host locations.

Host locations include: the California State Archives at 1020 O Street, the California State Library at 900 N Street, the Center for Sacramento History at 551 Sequoia Pacific Blvd. and the Sacramento Public Library at 828 I Street.

At each location, members of the public will view archival collections on display and take behind-the-scenes tours. Representatives from other archives and special collections libraries will be on hand to discuss their archival collections, which include historical photographs, rare books and historical artifacts. There will be opportunities to ask questions and learn how to connect with local history resources.

Those who have their passports stamped by at least three of the host locations will receive a set of limited-edition collectible coasters with images from Sacramento's historical Buffalo Brewing Company, which was founded in 1888 by Herman H. Grau.

This event is sponsored by the Sacramento History Foundation, the California State Library Foundation and the Gordon-Goldstein Foundation.

Friends of Sutter's Fort to present two events – one haunted

By LANCE ARMSTRONG
East Sacramento News writer
lance@valcomnews.com

Sutter's Fort will be the site of two upcoming events, which will serve as fundraisers for the Friends of Sutter's Fort.

A Taste of History

The first of these events, A Taste of History, will be held on Saturday, Sept. 24 from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

This event will feature some of the city's top chefs, who will use 19th century recipes and add their own modern touches to them.

One of the event's major sponsors will be Whole Foods, which will provide quality produce that will be used throughout the evening.

The event will begin with a reception, and wine, beer and hors d'oeuvres will be served while guests will have the opportunity to interact with the chefs, who will be preparing various levels of their dishes in the fort's period facilities.

The event, which will also include live, historic, acoustic music, will be highlighted by a four-course, seated dinner, which will begin with a chicken mole salad prepared by Jay Veregee, executive chef of Old Sacramento's Ten 22 restaurant.

Lisa Mealoy, executive director of the Friends of Sutter's Fort, said that when it comes to early Sutter's Fort history, presenting a Mexican-type dish at this event is very fitting.

"One of the things that people don't necessarily know is that California was actually a part of Mexico," Mealoy said. "During the time of Sutter, there was a lot of excitement and transition with Mexico and Sutter was very involved with the Mexican government. So, we're talking about highlighting the chicken mole, the Mexican aspect of things."

Also taking part in the event will be Patrick Mulvaney of midtown Sacramento's Mulvaney's B & L restaurant.

Mulvaney will be preparing local, grilled, king salmon with American River fennel and West Sacramento heirloom tomatoes. The dish will be paired with pinot noir wine from Rail Bridge Cellars of Sacramento.

Mealoy said that it will be a pleasurable experience to have such fine chefs at the event.

"They are Sacramento's local celebrity chefs and they are extraordinarily talented, but they also happen to be extraordinarily nice people, who are very generous in the community and lots of fun to get to work with," Mealoy said.

Tickets to this fundraiser are presently being sold for $85 per person.

For additional information regarding this event, call (916) 323-7626.

The Haunted Fort

The second upcoming event presented by the Friends of Sutter's Fort will be the very timely fall event, The Haunted Fort, which will be held on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 28 and 29 from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

An official Sutter's Fort news release notes that the fort was "once a portal for wearly pioneers (and) again serves as the gateway to their restless spirits, who return to tell the tales of their lives and melancholy deaths at this special family-friendly event."

The Haunted Fort will feature 45-minute, guided, in-the-dark, "spooky," historic tours of the fort that will present characters from different eras of the fort's past. These tours will begin about every 10 minutes.

Mealoy describes this event as an opportunity to hear about "dark and creepy and intriguing stories of the pioneers and people of Sacramento who came through and had some sort of relationship with the fort."

Continuing, Mealoy said that guests will meet people who will be portraying such characters as former Sutter's Fort curator Harry Pe-person and members of the Donner Party.

"(Guests) will learn about the characters themselves and why they're so fascinating and why they may have left their marks, their spirits, here at the fort," Mealoy said. "They all have very dramatic stories. And part of the goal behind this (event) is to help people see that we have tremendous stories that are a part of history that go way beyond just the dates and the numbers and the facts and the figures."

As for actual ghosts at the fort, Mealoy said, "We do have reports of ghosts and ghosts sightings here (at the fort), but it's all in one's belief. But any stories that we hear, nobody seems to feel that there's anything malevolent or threatening here, and this event itself is intended to be a family event. It's not a horror house type of event."

Admission for The Haunted Fort event will be $6 for ages 17 and older, $4 for ages 6 to 16, and free for ages 5 and younger.

For further information regarding this event, call (916) 445-4422.

Friends of Sutter's Fort

Because proceeds from both of the aforementioned events benefit the Friends of Sutter's Fort, Mealoy believes that it is important for the community to be informed about this nonprofit, 501(c)(3) organization.

Although the Friends of Sutter's Fort is only about three years old, it evolved from the Sacramento Historic Sites Association, a much older foundation that supported Sutter's Fort, as well as the California State Railroad Museum, the Stanford Mansion, the California State Indian Museum and the California State Capitol Museum.

Eventually, the Sacramento Historic Sites Association was divided into individual cooperating associations that were dedicated to specific state parks.

Volunteers are absolutely essential to the success of the organization, which also operates the trade store at Sutter's Fort.

In regard to The Haunted Fort event, Mealoy said, "(The volunteers) help in the research for the stories, because it's important to us that they be historically accurate. They help to design the scenarios, they help to put everything together and they just knock your socks off. There's no way that this event could happen if we didn't have (the volunteers)."

Mealoy said that having a foundation specifically dedicated to supporting the historical programming at Sutter's Fort is very beneficial in continuously improving upon the functions and activities of this long-time popular state historic park.

Be inspired by the lovely home interiors of Land Park

By SUSAN LAIRD
East Sacramento News editor
susan@valcomnews.com

Tickets are now available for the 2011 Land Park Home Tour that will take place on Sunday, Sept. 25 from 10 a.m to 4 p.m.

Land Park is a Sacramento neighborhood that is known for its lovely architectural detail. Homes were built in the 1920s, '30s, '40s and '50s and the homes feature many custom architectural details. The entire neighborhood has a cozy, picturesque quality to it.

This year's tour includes seven beautiful homes that have undergone extensive renovations, but still preserve their unique Land Park character and charm. As a special bonus, Fire Station 5 at Broadway and 8th Street will be open to members of the tour.

Featured homes include a Spanish-style home with a wonderful great room and new master suite; a Cape Cod home with beamed ceilings and a glorious expanse of windows in a newly remodeled kitchen; a shingled cottage now boasts guest quarters in a colorful Mexican-style casita; and a Tudor-style home has a new second story with unique flooring made from recycled railroad ties.

The Land Park Home Tour, in partnership with the Land Park Community Association, is hosting the tour in September in order to bring this popular event to the community in the autumn season.

Tickets are $20 in advance of the tour and can be purchased at Vic's Ice Cream, Espresso Metro and Capital Nursery (on Freeport Boulevard). Tickets will be $25 on the day of the event.

Rotarians restoring historical Camp Fire camp for today's youth

By SUSAN LAIRD
 East Sacramento News editor
 susan@valcomnews.com

The first phase of the renovation of Camp Mokitana – the old Camp Fire Girls camp located in River Bend (formerly Goethe) Park – will be celebrated when the camp's amphitheater is dedicated in memory of Rotarian Chandler Copps on Sept. 15 at 10 a.m.

The renovation is the result of the hard work of the Sacramento area's local Rotary clubs. Last year, Rotary District 5180 entered into a five year partnership with SaveMart Supermarkets for the purpose of raising funds to restore Camp Mokitana in Rancho Cordova.

The camp site is significant and holds great sentimental importance to generations of Sacramento area children – now adults – who attended summer Camp Fire camps at Camp Mokitana for well over a half century. Camp Fire was particularly strong in East Sacramento, Arden-Arcade and Carmichael from the 1950s up until the early 2000s, serving thousands of children and making many resources available to the community. For example, scouting groups leased the property from Camp Fire for their outdoor programs from time to time.

It was at Camp Mokitana that children discovered "Charley" – the caterpillar who can only eat Dutchman's Pipevine, who later spins a chrysalis (complete with hold-fasts) to later emerge as the Dutchman's Pipevine Butterfly. Camp Mokitana is Charley's habitat, and young people learned how threatening the habitat could threaten the life of the butterflies.

 These Sacramento area children were among the last to attend traditional day camp at Camp Fire's Camp Mokitana in Goethe (now River Bend) Park in 1999.

Kids learned the importance of conservation. Many made "We camp with Charley!" their rallying cry.

Camp Mokitana campers made their first friendship bracelets, honed their archery skills, learned outdoor skills, hiked together...and made new friends as they ate their first s'mores and sang camp songs around the bonfire in the old amphitheater.

The Camp Fire Girls became co-educational in 1974, becoming Camp Fire

Boys and Girls. During the 1990s, the council was headquartered in East Sacramento. A decline in membership and lack of community funding for Camp

Rotary: Restored camp will serve scouts, clubs, youth groups

Fire programs eventually led to the sale of the Sacramento-Sierra Council's other camp, Camp Minaluta, in 2004. Eventually the Sacramento-Sierra Camp Fire USA Council closed in 2008, ending nearly a century of service to the Sacramento region.

As the council declined, Camp Mokitana fell into a state of disrepair. Rattlesnakes were no longer the only hazard. Trails to the American River were overgrown, the block house was in shambles, the Climbing Trees needed a safety check and the camp sites all needed repair. A valuable resource for children's education was lost to the community.

It is, in some ways, appropriate that the organization whose motto is "Service Above Self" – Rotary – would come to the rescue of a facility of an organization whose slogan was "Give Service" – the Camp Fire Girls. Rotary is a worldwide organization of more than 1.2 million business, professional, and community leaders. Members of Rotary clubs, known as Rotarians, provide humanitarian service, encourage high ethical standards in all vocations, and help build goodwill and peace in the world. To restore Camp Mokitana to serve the community made sense to one local Rotarian in particular.

Chandler Copps, the founding president of the Rotary Club of Rancho Murietta, saw the need to restore this outdoor resource to the children of the community. He spearheaded the effort to persuade members of Rotary's District 5180 to support this effort. Funds would need to be raised, he realized, and strategic partnerships made with local authorities and businesses. Copps also reached out to SaveMart Supermarkets, which in turn stepped up to help.

A golf tournament held last October successfully raised over $57,000 for the restoration project. This money has helped the first phase of the restoration to near completion.

Phase 1 of the project includes the renovation of the camp's parking area, the path leading to the river, and the amphitheater. When completed, Camp Mokitana will again be useable by scout groups, church groups, Boys and Girls Clubs, and other youth groups as a camping facility in a rural area within an urban setting. The property is now owned by Sacramento County.

Chandler Copps, a respected Rotarian and member of the Paul Harris Society, passed away in early 2011.

"Chandler was an outstanding Rotarian who was responsible for getting us involved with SaveMart and the partnership that made this project a reality," said Clarence Parkins, Rotarian and past district governor. "The amphitheater will henceforth be known as the Chandler Copps Amphitheater in his memory."

Members of Rotary District 5180 will continue to hold future work days at Camp Mokitana as their work to renew the facility continues. They will also host the 2011 SaveMart/Governor's Cup Golf Tournament at the Rancho Murietta Country Club on Sept. 23. Funds from the tournament will help Rotary to continue to raise the funds necessary to rebuild this camping facility for the community. 'Another great Relles comes to Sacramento High'

By MARTY RELLES
East Sacramento News columnist
marty@valcomnews.com

My father, Martin Relles, Sr., arrived at Sacramento High in 1931 with great fanfare.

His brothers, George and Ross, who preceded him at the old school had outstanding athletic careers, so doubtless much was expected of Marty.

He did not disappoint them. In fact on his first day of school he had the following slogan sewn on his sweater: "Another great Relles comes to Sacramento High."

I arrived at Sacramento High in 1962 to begin my junior year with considerably lower expectations. I had just completed two unhappy and unsuccessful years at Christian Brothers School (CBS) and had no idea what to expect at Sac.

In fact, my experience at the old school proved to be a very good one.

For starters, my best friends Mike Gilson and Al Wilson transferred from CBS to Sac with me. This eased my transition.

We all tried out for varsity football that summer and all ended up on the Junior Varsity team.

At first, I felt disappointed by what seemed another failure, but in the end, the demotion worked out well for me. I played every down of an eight-game season at left end. During that time, I caught several passes and scored a touchdown in our final game against the Woodland Wolves.

I had found the success I had longed for at CBS. By the end of the semester, I earned my first athletic letter: bravo.

My academics improved at Sacramento High too, from barely a C average to a B. That is not surprising.

By comparison to CBS, Sacramento High had much to offer.

CBS at that time, was a small all-boys prep-school wedged onto the corner of 21st Street and Broadway.

Sacramento High (one of the oldest high schools west of the Mississippi) sprawled out on a nearly one square-mile campus, which included a football field and a track, a baseball field, a men's gym capable of seating 1,800 people, a women's gym, an auditorium large enough to seat the entire student body, shops for technically-oriented students, and science and language labs.

In addition to these physical resources, Sacramento High had an outstanding faculty headed up by its diminutive principal Albert J. Sessarego who held a PhD from Stanford. Under Dr. Sessarego, Sacramento High flourished.

During my two years at Sacramento High, I went on to earn two more sports letters in Varsity track and to attain all the required course work for college.

In the end, although I did not prove to be "another great Relles," at least I was a "good" Relles. To this day, I thank Dr. Sessarego and his outstanding staff for my success.

Now my days at venerable old Sacramento High School are another happy Janey Way memory.

Christian Brothers has high hopes to make it to the playoffs this season

By MATT LONG
East Sacramento News writer

After a somewhat disappointing 6-5 record last season, Christian Brothers' varsity football team has a new head coach with some big goals set for 2011.

Long-time assistant George Petrisans has taken over for Andre Johansen and wants his team to win a few playoff games instead of being eliminated in the first round like they've been the last four seasons and in five out of the last six.

Petrisans lost a lot of seniors from last year's team, but does have some key players returning, most notably senior quarterback Ryan Peabody, who was a part-time starter a year ago. With the graduation of Jerimiah Sims, the job is Peabody's.

"Ryan has a mixture of intangibles," Petrisans said. "He's extremely intelligent and is athletic and he's a leader that brings a lot to the team."

Peabody is excited to be the No. 1 guy this year.

"I'm definitely very excited for the season," Peabody said. "Our head coach was the offensive coordinator last year and he's put some new things in to spread the ball out. We're looking pretty good and we're trying to get better."

Joining Peabody in the backfield is senior fullback Chris Hedum and junior running back Avante Yarber, who will miss part of the season as he recovers from a fractured ankle. Until he returns, Petrisans said it will be running back by committee, led by junior Cory Lutz.

"Avante has great speed and quickness and a unique set of talents," Petrisans said.

Petrisans is also high on his receivers, juniors Jalen Walker and Omari Gray alongside senior tight end Chris Lusich, who played fullback a year ago.

"I think Jelan is someone to watch out for," Petrisans said. "He's fast and has good size (6'0", 175 pounds) and can go up and get the ball."

After running the ball about 80 percent of the time last year, the Falcons plan to do some more passing this year.

Four starters return on defense, including Lusich at inside linebacker and Wagstaff at defensive tackle. Senior Jonathan Lockwood also returns at inside linebacker and lines up next to Lusich, while senior CJ Goodier returns at cornerback.

Hedum joins Wagstaff on the interior line with Johnson and Castaneda playing on the ends. Senior Marcos Raymundo plays outside linebacker, while junior Avery Baker starts at cornerback. Danlee Hightower starts at safety.

One thing the Falcons have going for them is that they're developing nicely into a team instead of bunch of individuals.

"We're young, but we've come together," Wagstaff said. "We have no superstar. We will play hard and all of us love football. We're more cohesive this year and because we have no superstar, that will force us to play as a team."

The Falcons placed third in the Capital Valley League last year behind Del Campo and Casa Roble. Petrisans wants a league championship and a playoff win. He says Del Campo and Casa Roble are always tough opponents, while Rio Linda and Oakmont will also be in the mix.

"Coach is always talking about how hard work pays off," Lusich said. "He's been preaching togetherness and teamwork and with that we will overcome and adapt to adversity."

Peabody added, "I think the key for us is execution. When we execute our game plan on offense and our defensive strategies, we're pretty good."

While the Falcons are looking for playoff success, there's also a big non-league game on their schedule every year that holds great importance and that's the Holy Bowl, the annual battle with Jesuit High School.

"When you get close to 18,000 people at the game, you know it's a big rivalry game," Petrisans said. "No matter what people think of the talent on either team, the game's always close. There's a lot of emphasis on the game. If we play hard and play with enthusiasm and with good energy, good things will happen."

The players for sure love the Holy Bowl.

"In terms of football it's just another game, but it's always fun to play in front of that many people," Peabody said. "It's an exciting game."

"It's obviously an important game," Wagstaff said. "It's a whole different experience as a junior. You get to feel what the rivalry is all about."

Lusich added, "It's definitely a fun game to play in. You have the drumline leading you in and there are 18,000 fans and your adrenaline is pumping. It's a pretty amazing feeling; one you won't forget."

Jesuit Varsity team young, inexperienced...but loaded with potential

By MATT LONG
East Sacramento News writer

It's been four years since Jesuit's varsity football team has had a winning record.

For some programs, that might not be a big deal, but to Jesuit it seems like a lifetime since the team went 8-3 and made a trip to the postseason in 2007. The following year the Marauders slipped to 5-5 and the past two years the Marauders have posted 4-6 records.

This year head coach Dan Carmazzi is hoping a switch to the spread offense will help the team put some more points on the scoreboard, and the Marauders will also have to improve defensively if they want to reach the postseason.

"Record-wise (4-6) is not what we shoot for," Carmazzi said. "Obviously, we'd like to have a better record than that. We had a really solid offseason and the kids did a great job in the weight room and we also did some passing leagues."

The Marauders lost 30 seniors off last year's squad and have only 16 players returning so young and inexperienced are two words that describe this year's squad. Junior Thomas Sperbeck, last year's junior varsity quarterback, and senior Mason Pigman are battling for the starting job at quarterback. Sperbeck, son of Sac State coach Marshall Sperbeck, is the odds on favorite to be the starter.

"Thomas is very mobile and he's a competitor," Carmazzi said. "He's accurate and makes good decisions. He's a great athlete, as he reached the section meet as a long jumper and a high jumper last year."

Senior Cameron Todd is the team's top returning rusher, while Pat Barrientes returns at fullback. Fellow seniors Scott Rogers and Parker Abercrombie will start at wide receiver with senior Jared Elenberger holding down the job at tight end along with senior John Frank. Sophomore Lake Lutes, all 6-foot, 5-inches of him, will see plenty of action at wide receiver and could be a big threat for the offense.

Abercrombie, who also starts at safety, said he likes this year's offense.

"Offensively, both quarterbacks are capable to step up and both have good leadership qualities," Abercrombie said. "We hope to catch some teams off guard with our spread package, as we have a lot of playmakers on offense, including a strong receiving core."

The offensive line is led by senior George Vrame, a returning starter at left tackle. Senior Blake Rogers will start next to Vrame, while the center will either be senior A.J. Calnero or junior Rafael Aguilar. Garrett Strohmaier, a junior, starts at right tackle, while the right guard position is still being decided.

Perhaps the top offensive player is senior kicker Andrew Nave, who Carmazzi said might be the school's top recruited player.

The Marauders have several two-way players, as Todd (outside linebacker), Barrientes (cornerback), Abercrombie and Sperbeck (safety), Blake Rogers and Strohmaier (defensive tackle) and Calnero and Vrame (defensive end) play key roles on defense.

THE JESUIT MARAUDERS look to repeat their 2010 Holy Bowl win over rival Christian Brothers.

The leader on defense is senior middle linebacker Nathan Zielke. At 5'9" and 170 pounds, he's not going to physically intimidate opponents, but make no mistake, he's all business.

"Nate's our top returning tackler and his motor is always running," Carmazzi said. "He's undersized, but he's tough and aggressive."

If Zielke is the team's top tackler, Frank is right behind him at safety. Junior Casey Reilly will play defensive end, while junior Connor Frey is a starter at outside linebacker. Junior Matt Ternan will play a lot in the secondary, while senior Steven Tavenner starts at cornerback.

"Defensively, our line is solid and we've got great camaraderie, we talk a lot and we pursue and attack the ball," Abercrombie said.

After finishing tied for third place in the Delta River League a year ago with Oak Ridge and Sheldon with a 2-3 record, the Marauders know to finish higher, they will need to beat the playoff teams. Last year the Marauders picked up league wins over Ponderosa and Sheldon, while losing to Oak Ridge, Folsom and Pleasant Grove.

"We've got to beat the playoff teams," Carmazzi said. "We haven't been able to beat the top-ranked teams and that's our goal this year."

Abercrombie added, "I have high expectations for this team. We're definitely planning on making the playoffs and pushing for a section title run. We want to win Holy Bowl, which is big for us, and we want to beat some of the top teams in our league."

Jesuit did win a big non-league game a year ago, when they defeated Christian Brothers, 18-15 to win the annual Holy Bowl.

"The Holy Bowl is a great tradition that I've been apart of on both sides since I graduated from Christian Brothers and now coach at Jesuit," Carmazzi said. "It's great to go out there and play in front of 12 to 15,000 fans and the kids eat it up. Both teams get great community support and it's one of the highlights of the year. Whenever I talk to alumni, they don't ask what our record is; all they want to know is if we won Holy Bowl."

"It's a very emotional game and both teams leave everything on the field," Abercrombie added. "There are a lot of emotions going into that game and it's something that we'll tell our kids about someday."

Holy Bowl XLI a strong Sacramento tradition

Special to East Sacramento News

Since 1969, the Christian Brothers Falcons and the Jesuit Marauders have met each fall on the gridiron for the annual classic Holy Bowl. This year will mark the 41st competition between the rival schools.

Dubbed the "Holy Bowl" because both schools are Catholic, this event is the largest Catholic event in the entire region, with some 18,000 people attending. That is nearly 700 more people than Power Balance Pavilion can seat for a full-capacity Sacramento Kings game.

The crowd is not limited to eager parents of players. Alumni from both high schools attend, as well as members of the St. Francis High School community. Alumni of now closed Catholic high schools, such as Loretto and Bishop Manogue, also attend to cheer family members on.

This year's Holy Bowl will be held at Sacramento City College on Sept. 17. Kickoff for the freshman game is at 3 p.m., JV kickoff is at 5 p.m. and Varsity kickoff is at 7 p.m. Visit www.cbhs.ca.campusgrid.net or www.jhsac.org for game ticket information.

CALIFORNIA CAPITAL AIRSHOW THRILLING & PATRIOTIC

East Sacramento News photographer

The skies over Sacramento thundered as the Sixth annual California Capital Airshow was held at Mather Field on Sept. 10 and 11.

Both vintage and modern aircraft (and the world's fastest semi-tractor-jet-truck) thrilled and entertained. The event also honored the courage and sacrifice of our nation's veterans – as well as the men and women who currently serve in the U.S. Armed Forces.

Special performances included the F-15E Strike Eagle Team, an F-18 Super Hornet demonstration, 'Tora! Tora! Tora!' – a multi-sensory tribute to Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, 1941, the Patriots Jet Team and the Heritage Flight.
